By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U. S. Press) — Russia's breakoff of Western efforts to break the disarmament deadlock may have demonstrated her new ICBM-Sputnik "pistion of strength." But it also put a severe strain on her friendship with many so-called neutral nations.

Delegates infer this from the lineup in the smashing 60-9 U. N. Assembly endorsement of the West's plan to increase the 12-nation Disarmament Commission to 25 members. Only the Soviet bloc voted against the proposal despite Russia's warning she would boycott the talks unless half the nations at the conference table were Communist or neutral.

The West had been confident of victory on the vote. But few had expected Syria and Egypt, who received economic and military aid from Moscow, to vote for the plan. Nor had they anticipated support from such Asian neutrals as Ceylon and Indonesia, who usually show a marked preference for Soviet ideas.

A number of usually pro-Soviet delegations were deeply disturbed by Russia's ever-increasing demands during the East-West negotiations last week on enlarging the commission.

Yugoslav Communists, who played a key role in trying to bring the two sides together, became so annoyed by the Soviet tactics that they divorced themselves from the deal and quit the sponsor's list.

India, who originated the move to enlarge the commission, did not appreciate Russia's sudden rejection of the plan after the Indians had persuaded the West to go along with the compromise.

The Soviets also angered Austria and Finland, who chided them in the Assembly for placing their names on the Red list of commission candidates without telling them in advance.

Two Sought in Murder of Ex-Convict

ENGLAND (UP) — Police today sought two men who methodically planned and executed the murder of a 50-year-old ex-convict at his home near here yesterday.

Sheriff Warren C. Minton said two men drove their green 1955 Ford pickup truck to the home of Otis Holt, called for him to come out, then shot him down with a .30-06 caliber rifle.

Earlier, the men had stopped at a store two miles from the Holt home to ask directions to his residence. Holt lived in the Seaton Dump community, south of England.

Holt's 15-year-old sister-in-law, Hercul Spears of Coy, witnessed the shooting. She said the men backed the truck into the yard, apparently for a quick getaway.

She said they called for Holt to come outdoors. When he recognized the men and turned to run away, he was shot down. A bullet entered his back beneath the kidney. The men leaped in their truck and fled.

Authorities believed the men who killed Holt were fellow inmates of his when Holt served five years of a 21-year sentence in Tucker Prison Farm for second degree murder. He was paroled in 1954.

One of Holt's assailants was believed to be a white male.

Opium Disappears From Court Room

SAN FRANCISCO (U. S. Press) — Police today were investigating the disappearance of five pounds of opium from the court of Superior Judge Walter Carpanetti where it was to be evidence for a trial.

The opium—worth $5,000 on the illegal market, and contained in two paper bags—vanished yesterday.

It had been placed under the court table for safekeeping.

No Reason to Revise Act, Gore Declares

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (U. S. Press) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said today he believes European readiness to use American nuclear weapons in wartime can be achieved without amending the Atomic Energy Act.

"I generally favor increased cooperation with our allies in this field and if an amendment to the law is regarded as necessary by the administration, I would give it serious and sympathetic consideration," Gore said in an interview.

"But as of now I know of no such need and none has been indicated to the Senate-House committee."

Gore's statement reflects, in part, the kind of opposition in Congress which some think might force some compromises in the administration's announced intention to seek a freer exchange of scientific atomic information with U. S. allies.

President Eisenhower has said he will ask Congress to lift some of the secrecy provisions of the Atomic Energy Act.

The proposal has drawn a mixed and none too favorable reaction from Senate-House Atomic Energy committees. "If whom Gore is one, Chairman Durham (D-NC), among others, has questioned the adequacy of security systems in nations which would get such secret information."

Student Hurt in Wreck Unconscious

SHERMAN, Tex. (U. S. Press) — Herman E. Schieffelin, 19, an Austin College student injured in a college party Tuesday night, remained unconscious today.

Students said the Marlin, Tex., freshman was driven six miles out of town and left to walk back. He jumped on the back of the auto and rode several hundred feet before falling off and injuring his head.

Meanwhile, the school ordered a halt to all hazing.

Says Only Way to Live Is Through Happiness

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U. S. Press) — "Nobody is safe," said Victor Borge. "But there is no life except happiness."

"Understanding of life can be achieved only by being happy."

It is a pleasure to meet, off-stage this pleasant Dane, who milks money, music and laughter from the piano, because in his home he retains his professional atmosphere of good humor.

But on the other hand, when he backs with a smile—the girl in his joint in the Plaza Hotel, his wife and his secretary bounce.

Top, Fronto — and smiling. This is the possible dream of every American man — to be the boss, have the girls realize it, and enjoy it. They have to have fun out of it, too.

Borge is an unusual man with great talent. He is a highly conscious craftsman. His use of piano humor is measured, not warm, often repetitive, but highly effective.

Senator John L. McClellan was presented with the C. E. Palmer Achievement Award at the annual banquet of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce in Little Rock Wednesday night.

Wylie, HD Agent. Home baked pies, cakes, cookies and breads will be furnished by the various Home Demonstration Club members of the county.

The Scholarship Fund was set up as one of the projects of the Council to assist any worthy 4-H Club girl interested in studying Home Economics. Any girl eligible would receive $100 to assist her expenses during her first year at college.

Many Areas Report Sky Objects

By The Associated Press

Reports from Arkadelphia, Pine Bluff and Hope last night described a bright, reddish object in the sky as the latest in a series of Arkansas "sightings."

A Little Rock meteorologist suggested that the object probably was the planet Venus.

George Martin of the U. S. Weather Bureau said people were sky-conscious these days and Venus is extremely bright at this time.

A number of reports put the object in the southwest sky where Venus would be in the early evening. However, a woman who lives near Arkadelphia said she saw it in the northwest, and another viewer said he saw a light streaking northeasterly from Arkadelphia.

Farm Home Development Group Meets

The County Farm and Home Development Committee held a meeting recently in the County Extension office. The purpose of this meeting was to review the present year's work and make plans for the coming year.

Committee members were Ned Furtle, Chairman; Mrs. William Schooley, Mrs. Joe England, Dale Jones, Syd McMath, Moss Rowe and the County Extension Agents.

Associate County Agent Wade Benefield presented a summary of the past two years work as a basis of comparing the economic advancements in the different farm home operations. The summary and analysis of labor income records were discussed to show the methods used to arrive at analyzing farm business accounts to determine if all phases of a farming operation were showing indications of being profitable. This analysis is broken down and assembled from records the farmers keep on each year's farming operation. The Agricultural Economic Department of the University of Arkansas assembles these records and makes the analysis on a statewide basis so that each farmer can compare his managerial ability with farms of the same type and size in other sections of the state.

Some cost figures were presented to point out the tremendous expense involved in operating a farm business in addition to other risks. On 24 farms in 1955 the total percent the expenses were of the receipts amounted to 70% and in 1956 the amount was 75%.

If farmers are to prosper it is important for them to try to cut costs and become more efficient through better management.

Color slides were shown which showed the results of demonstration and other phases of Farm and Home Development work. The slides were made showing the progress of controlling Johnson grass by using chemicals on the Bill Schooley farm and Sidney Cash farm, cotton production and management on the James Burke farm, forestry management on the Leo Evans farm, etc.

The committee suggested that after Jan. 1, 1958, it would meet with their approval if two or three new families were added to the program. If you are interested and would like to discuss this further, contact any of the County Agricultural Agents at the County Extension office.

News Coverage Studied by APME

NEW ORLEANS (U. S. Press) — The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. planned to devote its annual convention today to problems of domestic news coverage.

The panel discussion listed such topics as the Billy Graham crusade, segregation and Hollywood.

Dr. Will Menninger, secretary of the Menninger Foundation of Topeka, Kan., will speak on "Mental Health and the Nation's Press."

The editors began a series of discussions yesterday on the AP report after a morning session devoted entirely to freedom of information. The discussions will continue until the convention ends Saturday.

FHA Risk Would Drop Under New Housing Plan

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (U. S. Press) — The Eisenhower administration is weighing a new federal housing administration program under which mortgage lenders would set the interest rate and FHA would insure only 20 per cent of the risk.

Housing administrator Albert M. Cole announcing this today, told reporters that if the administration decided to recommend the plan and Congress adopts it, FHA would not enforce the same structural standards which now protect home buyers.

He said his plan would not change or displace the existing FHA insurance program under which the government insures 100 per cent of the lender's risk but imposes a ceiling of 5 per cent on the interest rate he can charge.

Cole unveiled the plan in a speech prepared for the convention of the New Jersey League of Municipalities at Atlantic City, after explaining it to reporters here.

"The program would permit low down payments and low monthly payments," he said in the speech.

"One of the principal aims would be to avoid the prohibitive expenses of second mortgage financing that is becoming increasingly—and dangerously—prevalent."

"It would greatly reduce the chances of the home owner losing his home."

Cole told newsmen that "no definite decision has been made," but that the plan is under "concentrated discussion" in the government.

The idea was expected to arouse quick opposition in Congress, where Democratic legislators have resisted lifting the interest ceiling.

"I consider this ceiling a protection for veterans and other home-purchasers—even though the ceiling has been blamed for a shortage of credit available for FHA insured mortgages."

Anticipating such objections, Cole told the Atlantic City audience that if the plan becomes part of the administration's new housing bill, the government would "take measures to see to it that interest rates are fair from the viewpoint of the home owner and that exorbitant charges are not permitted."

"The purpose of this plan would be to threaten if a small minority of lenders in using it put an unreasonable burden on the home owner," the housing chief added.

"In any government-sponsored program the home buyer must be protected."

Leggett Declared Sane, Slayer to Be Executed on Schedule, Dec. 6

Attorney Gets Passport to Red China

LOS ANGELES (U. S. Press) — A Los Angeles attorney says he is the first American to have a passport validated for travel to Communist China and North Korea.

A. L. Wirin's passport was signed yesterday by W. C. Neenan, acting director of the U. S. Passport Office in Los Angeles, after a federal judge in San Francisco ruled that Wirin had a right to gather evidence and interview witnesses behind the Bamboo Curtain.

The State Department at first had refused to permit Wirin to visit Red China and North Korea. But Judge Louis B. Goodman of San Francisco ruled last Oct. 30 that unless Wirin was allowed to go he would dismiss sedition charges against Wirin's clients, John and Sylvia Powell.

The Powells are charged with printing seditious articles in a English language newspaper they published in Shanghai. The articles accused the United States of stalling in the Korean peace negotiations, of conducting bacteriological warfare and of committing aggressive acts against Red China and North Korea.

"Denying Wirin a passport, Judge Goodman held, would be violating the constitutional rights of the Powells to produce evidence and witnesses."

Wirin said he intends to interview more than 100 persons in his three-month trip, including Chou En-lai, foreign minister of China, and Kim Il Sung, prime minister of North Korea.

Wirin said he had been in the Los Angeles County Jail today in connection with the fatal shooting of James Otis Holt, 50, near Hummock Tuesday.

Sheriff Warren C. Minton said Johnny Hawthorne, 44, and his brother-in-law, Vester Branscom, both of Roswell, N.M., were arrested near Marshall yesterday.

Minton said Hawthorne was the brother of a man Holt killed in 1947.

Holt, a farmer and one-time Los Angeles County deputy sheriff, was shot after two men drove in a pickup truck to his home near Hummock.

A girl who was baby sitting at the Holt home told officers that Holt went out to speak to the men in the truck. She was quoted as saying that one of the men in the vehicle fired a rifle.

Holt was hit in the side by a 30-06 bullet and died almost instantly, officers said.

In 1954, Holt was paroled from the Arkansas penitentiary where he had started a sentence for second degree murder in 1949. He was convicted of the shooting slaying of Lester Hawthorne, about 25, in Jefferson County near Coy on Aug. 4, 1947.

Officers said Holt and Lester Hawthorne, both tenants on a farm near Coy at the time, quarreled over services of a sharecropper and the shooting resulted.

Holt's survivors include his wife, four sons, six daughters and 13 grandchildren.

Funeral will be at England tomorrow. Burial will be at Keo.

Two Admit Big Jewelry Robbery

LOS ANGELES (U. S. Press) — Two of four men charged with the $90,000 robbery of singer, Lauritz Melchior's home have pleaded guilty. They will be sentenced Dec. 16.

The other two pleaded innocent yesterday and will stand trial.

The loot, chiefly furs, jewels and cash, was recovered 48 hours after the June 18 robbery with the arrest of Richard McFall, 39, and Alfred Pope, 28. They pleaded guilty.

Louis Spivack, 44 and Wayne Burke, 39, pleaded innocent.

Sees U. S. Threat to Education

DALLAS (U. S. Press) — School Supt. W. T. White says the biggest threat to public school education is interference by the federal government.

Dallas schools are under court order to integrate after midyear. White said those who ask the federal government for aid "are handing over to outside power the rights and responsibilities that ought to be handled on a local level."

"I had rather have less money, not as good equipment, school houses less well built, as long as we keep it at the local level," he said.

New Mexicans Held in Fatal Shooting

LOANOKO (U. S. Press) — Two New Mexico men were being held on open charges in Loanoko County Jail today in connection with the fatal shooting of James Otis Holt, 50, near Hummock Tuesday.

Sheriff Warren C. Minton said Johnny Hawthorne, 44, and his brother-in-law, Vester Branscom, both of Roswell, N.M., were arrested near Marshall yesterday.

Minton said Hawthorne was the brother of a man Holt killed in 1947.

Declares U. S. Can't Widen Wheat Exports

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today the United States cannot now widen export markets for wheat without breaking world prices.

the market. Benson made the statements in a speech prepared for the annual convention of the National Grange. What he said was a apparent reference to Grange proposals that the government adopt a multiple price plan for wheat, cotton and other export crops as a means of broadening markets.

Under this plan, that portion of the export crops consumed in this country would be supported at a relatively high level to hold them on a par with industrial wages and profits.

But production in excess of domestic needs would be allowed to drop to whatever levels were necessary to find markets.

Benson told the convention that much of agriculture's current economic troubles grow out of rising costs of farm machinery, supplies and materials used in farm production. "It is not for me to say what labor and industry should do at this juncture," he said. "But as a spokesman for agriculture in the federal government, I will say that I am deeply disturbed by any action which adds even one penny to the production costs of farmers at this time."

Show Excellent Work But It Was Unhappy

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—At the very beginning of The General Motors 50th Anniversary Show NBC-TV I acquired uncomfortably when Kirk Douglas looked directly at me and said:

"There are some persons who are embarrassed by sentiment; there are those who do not like to be detected in the possession of a heart. . . I suggest that such persons. . . He made the sign of the twisted dial.

Well, heartless fell that I am, I stuck out the program for its full two hours, admiring the beautiful production the host of talented performers, and enjoying some of the sequences in the shows theme of the pursuit of happiness.

Yet I'm still afflicted as to why I didn't thoroughly enjoy this program which brought ecstatic praise from so many viewers. Certainly I'm a sentimentalist. Earlier on Sunday evening I passed 90 misty-eyed minutes thoroughly enjoying that highly sentimentalized study of death, "On Borrowed Time," which was brilliantly produced and acted on Hall of Fame (NBC-TV).

So what was wrong with the General Motors big show? Nothing, according to most viewers I've heard discussing it. The script by Helen Deutsch was excellent, the production by Jess Oppenheimer superb, the performances of virtually everyone fine indeed.

The fault, dear Brutus, must lie in me that I get my back up when the narrator of a television show comes on and says, in effect, "Look, we're going in for sentiment tonight and if you can't enjoy it you're a slob. That, of course, is a picaresque criticism of the program and a dig criticism of me.

Before I turn in my reviewers badge, however, I'd like to say that I believe there is genuine happiness to be found in a solid marriage, in parenthood, in remembering the past, in listening to a single like Dinah Shore and hearing Helen Hayes speak in verse.

But the show was pressing me too hard in its pursuit of much too hard in its pursuit of such forms of simple happiness. I don't know when I've been so crestfallen happy for two solid hours. So credit the show for trying—and me for falling again to grin for two hours.

Speaking of that illusory emotion called happiness I was pretty unhappy throughout much of the 90 minutes of "On Borrowed Time" yet ended by being extraordinarily happy with the show.

but he says:

"I started with the Cadillac of the fowl business and now it is as common as the bicycle. I love my farm. But the cost of living is such that you have to make it worthwhile. You cannot just have land. You must do something with the land."

Although the margin of success in the poultry field, Boyle who has earnings from the show would plow into it, is optimistic that his efforts to popularize the Rock Cornish hen will yield him more than a mound of feathers. This is a plump-breasted bird designed to sell at 89 to 99 cents a pound.

His attitude toward life is as on the platform before the piano and the public. The way he talks about it, however, allows the possibility that it is more personal and perhaps less professional. He has the gift of making you feel you excited him.

He says about this world: "It is so small, so big, you cannot live long enough in it to do the things you want to."

He was speaking about invitations to perform in South Africa and Australia.

"It's so nice to be independent," he added. "To come and go as you please—to an extent, that is."

"I don't believe in fatalism. But I do believe in cause and effect. You have the universe of you. But inside you are five million different dynamos, each of whom can limit your life or extend it."

"A walk across the street can change your life. Every second can change your life."

"But I do believe in goals. I don't believe anything is just blind accident."

"People's lives would be more interesting if they would just realize how they can change from moment to moment."

"There is no such thing as an uninteresting life, unless you get overwhelmed by problems and feel neglected by a higher power. There is no such thing as bad water or a bad thing. What I don't like, my neighbor may."

"There are people I see in the street I make big rings around. But happiness comes, as the weather does, in waves, not in streams."

"I am a very happy man."

Abbe Lane Is Back Despite Her Threats

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Abbe Lane swore she wouldn't return to Hollywood until the combined studio heads bore her through the streets like an Egyptian princess with the lesser officials strewing rose petals in her path.

Well, she's back, and no such demonstration occurred.

However, there are indications that Hollywood is coming around to her way of thinking about Abbe Lane.

"Hollywood! she exclaimed seething. "Don't mention Hollywood to me!"

I took a chance and did so and she continued: "I left here two years ago because nobody in Hollywood could see me as anything but a band singer. I went to Italy, where they have imagination about a person's talent. When they see a girl sing, they realize she could be able to act to."

The more preceptive Italians made good use of her talents. In two years, she did a total of eight pictures, appearing opposite such stars as Vittorio de Sica, Totò and Peter Ustinov.

"I went to Italy at a very good time she reported. "The other female stars were on the wane. Sophia Loren was away doing American pictures; they consider her almost an American star now. Besides, she is in real trouble because of her marriage."

Gina Lollobrigida was out because of her baby, and she was falling in popularity. The Italian are very fickle about their cee favorites.

So Abbe stepped in. Now she's back here to play "a tramp" in "Marshebo" with Cornel Wilde, who is also producing and directing.

"I didn't quite get carried through the streets when I returned," she said, "but they did make concessions to have me do the picture, because I have to start play rehearsals right away; they started the picture earlier than they expected. And they're getting all of my scenes out of the way in 10 days so I can leave."

Knowland to Keep Job as Leader

EL CENTRO, Calif., (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) says he will keep the job of Senate minority leader during the next session of Congress despite his entry into the California gubernatorial campaign. Knowland made the statement in an address to the El Centro Rotary Club yesterday.

The senator is seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination and is expected to face Democratic State Atty. Gen. Edmund Brown in next year's election. Incumbent Republican Gov. Goodwin Knight is seeking Knowland's Senate seat.

the nature of happiness more profoundly than the General Motors show because it took into account the nature of human unhappiness.

Bennett Acts to Force Out NAACP Data

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has made two separate legal moves to get a look at records of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Yesterday the NAACP placed $437 in Pulaski Chancery Court registry to avoid having to obey an order to open its books to Bennett.

However, Chancery Judge J. Mitchell Cockrell indicated he probably would order the NAACP to show its books to Bennett in a suit in his court. But Cockrell withheld entering an order until both sides had time to file briefs.

Bennett filed both suits at the same time.

The chancery suit asks $350 which Bennett says the NAACP owes the state in franchise taxes. Reed ordered the NAACP either to open its books to Bennett—who claimed he needed to see them for evidence in prosecuting his suit—or deposit the $350 in court registry by Nov. 9.

The NAACP did not make the deposit of $437 which includes a penalty, until Nov. 19. The deposit does not settle the case.

Bennett's suit in circuit court of defense and educational fund, gal. defense and educational fund, Inc. as a penalty for alleged failure to register with the secretary of state to operate in Arkansas.

Bennett has another identical suit on file in circuit court against the NAACP itself.

In another action concerning the NAACP Pulaski Prosecutor J. Frank Holt asked yesterday that a federal court suit challenging the validity of the state Sovereignty Commission be held up until state courts ruled on the matter. Holt is a defendant in the suit, which was filed in U. S. District Court by the NAACP. His request was contained in an answer to the suit a reply similar to one filed Monday by Richard B. McCulloch of Forrest City, the commission's attorney.

The answer asks that the NAACP suit be consolidated with a similar suit filed by 10 Negro ministers and that proceedings be stayed pending a ruling on the Sovereignty Commission law by state courts.

Boys Club Counts Blessings in Pennies

MOUNT KISCO, N. Y. (AP)—The Mount Kisco Boys Club is counting its blessings in pennies.

Last spring, Readers Digest magazine mailed out 100 million pennies, two each enclosed in letters to prospective subscribers.

However, 1½ million letters came back because of wrong addresses. That meant a return of three million pennies, or $30,000.

Magazine officials blushed at the thought of opening all those returned letters and digging out the coppers. So they offered the job to the boys club on a 30-50 basis.

Thus far, the club has banked $5,000.

Rock n Roll Takes Over in S. Africa

NEW YORK (AP)—Rock 'n' roll is taking over in South Africa, according to a Zulu disc jockey. King Edward Masinga, 41, who conducts a daily Zulu language program in Durban, is in this country on a special State Department grant to study American drama and broadcasting. Masinga said his program in Durban features the old folk music, but that it is losing out to rock 'n' roll.

DOROTHY DIX

Everybody's Friend
But Nobody's Wife

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'd like to enlist your aid for the benefit of a dear friend of mine. Let me draw you a picture of Roxanne. She's 26, an artist, has a wonderful sense of humor, conceals delicious meals, is a magnificent hostess, well liked by everyone — yet she doesn't have a boy friend nor does there seem to be a prospect of one. Everybody calls on her in time of trouble, and her chief delight seems to be in helping others. Roxanne isn't a pretty girl, but she has so many other assets that I'm sure there must be some way for her to meet a man. Have you any suggestions?

HANNAH
Dear Hannah: Unfortunately — for themselves and the people for whom they could create wonderful homes — the world is full of Roxannes. Look around you. I'm sure you can spot other girls, home-loving, adept in domestic arts, able to get along with all sorts of people — except prospective husbands. They aren't the type to travel in circles where masculine company is plentiful, they don't go to dances unescorted, nor do they spend several weeks' salary pursuing men at resorts. They just do their jobs, accept their place as peace-makers, trouble-shooters and arms of refuge.

Often they do marry — perhaps a little later than most girls, but when they are discovered by a discerning male, a happy union is practically guaranteed. No, Hannah, I'm afraid I don't have any suggestions for Roxanne. Since you and her other friends want to be of help, the best I can come up with is that you herd as many eligible men as possible and have them meet Roxanne. The rest is up to her.

Dear Dorothy Dix: What do you do with a sister-in-law who is forever bragging about how much housework she does, and how fast her house is cleaned, and how much better she can do anything than anyone else?

BOTHERED IN-LAW
Dear Bothered: Pity the poor thing for the boredom of her single interest existence. No subject is as boring to others as an account of one's daily housework. Who cares how many tablecloths you ironed? We see enough of that on daytime television. Listen as a good in-law must, but spend as little time with her as possible.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Because my 18 year old sister won't help with our plans, Mother has refused permission to let me have a sweet-sixteen party.

Dear Lisa: Have a heart-to-heart talk with Mom and tell her you're perfectly capable of planning your own party without sister's help. Then send me a large self-addressed envelope, stamped with 6 cents postage, asking for a booklet, "Entertaining Made Easy." This will tell you how to plan a very simple party that you could easily handle alone.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I have been married three times but never found a husband I could live with peacefully. Not long ago I met another man I like. He seems very nice. Should I try my luck again?

BESSIE U.
Dear Bess: Marriage is rather more than a question of luck. Since you've had such a bad run at the wheel, don't you think you should use a more dependable system? Love, loyalty and consideration, for instance.

Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, and Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, were cabinet members all the administrations of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Gavilan Wins by a Decision

CHICAGO (U) — Kid Gavilan is showing signs of rust but his fighting instinct still has plenty of polish.

The former welterweight champion, who at 31 wants to regain the title, craftily won a unanimous decision over Boston's Walt Byars last night in a 10-rounder televised nationally from Chicago Stadium.

Byars, 25, was in a purple rage in the sixth round, complaining to Referee Frank Sikora that the Cuban Kid had struck a low blow.
It looked for a tribute as if Byars would leave in Gavilan in angered frenzy.

The Major Periods are shown in the times shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter.
The Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

The schedule of Solar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times. If you wish to find the

WASHINGTON (U) — The State Department has collected and taken custody of all known gifts to its personnel from King Saud of Saudi Arabia.

There is one exception, however. That is the $3,000 automobile given by Saud to the family of Victory R. Purse, former deputy chief of protocol at the State Department. The car is registered in his wife's name, and the Department made no effort to reclaim it.

Disclosure of the gift to Purse's wife several weeks ago touched off a furore in the Department over the propriety of accepting gifts.

After a hearing, the Department decided Purse could keep the car and his job. He was found to be within the law but to have exercised "bad judgment."

The Department acted last week to clarify the regulations governing acceptance of gifts by State Department personnel at home and American foreign service officers abroad. A circular was sent around to all of them.

In effect, the circular ruled out any gifts except those of insignificant value, such as autographed photographs.

The order to turn in gifts from Saud went out nearly two weeks ago. It was done quietly. Wrist watches, Arab robes and ceremonial daggers — standard among gifts dispensed by Saud during his Washington visit last February — were turned in. They were taken over by the protocol division for storing until the Department decides whether to give them back.

This was a reversal of an earlier decision that it was all right to keep them. The Saud gifts had been turned in almost immediately. About the middle of the year they were made available to the recipients.

The circular clarifying gift regulations noted that in some instances it might be impolite to refuse a gift, however expensive.

It said that to prevent snubbing a foreign dignitary, costly gifts might be accepted. But they would have to be turned in to protocol pending a Department decision on whether they could be kept.

Many items have been in storage for years awaiting just such a decision.

Purse has been transferred to another job, although the Department insists this had nothing to do with the gift controversy. He now is chief of administration in the Department's office of international organization affairs.

Judy Garland, Count Basie
Rock British

LONDON (UP) — Count Basie's orchestra set Queen Elizabeth II to tapping her foot Monday night.
And the singing of Judy Garland brought down the house. But rock
'n' roll was a flop.

The occasion was the annual royal command performance at the Palladium with American stars stealing the spotlight from most of the British performers.

Princess Margaret, who once told Basie she had all of his records, could not attend because of a previous engagement. Basie said the Queen told him the princess was "very sorry" she couldn't come.

"But the Queen said she had been listening to some of my records herself," Basie said. "I guess she must have borrowed them from my sister."

Miss Garland received such a roar of applause she could only whisper "Thank you. Oh, thank you" across the footlights.

"They tell me I have to go off and I can't sing any more," she said to the cries of encore that rocked the audience. "But I love you all. Thank you."

The Queen and Duke of Edinburgh joined in the renewed cheering that signified a new peak of Judy's career.

Actress Looking for Dream Man

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A girl less than one month to meet her American dream man or it's back to reality and spinsterhood, says
the 24-year-old British actress.

The green-eyed honey blonde said she doesn't like Englishmen. "They have no appreciation of womanhood," she said. "But American men. They are appreciative. They pay more attention to women."

Miss Orlin is scheduled to return to England Dec. 17 after a 12-week tour.

Hope-Prescott Play Annual Tilt Friday

Friday night, the Hope Bobcats will complete a busy week when they go against the Prescott Curly Wolves in Hammond's Stadium. The Bobcats already have tasted victory once this week, when they beat the Crossett Eagles 32-7, and their appetite is not yet appeased.
This is one of the oldest grid rivalries in Southwest Arkansas football.

The Bobcats have defeated the Curly Wolves seven straight years.
Last year Prescott was really up for the Cats, but the Cats came through for a 33-13 victory.

Prescott is always ready for the Bobcats and this year is no exception. They have a strong, fast team that is capable of pulling an upset.
The Bobcats finished second in the 4AA conference, and will be trying to finish the season with an enjoyable 8-3 record. The Bobcats will end their season against Nashville on Thanksgiving day.

Florida Back
Gets Player
of Week Nod

By The Associated Press
The college back who got the biggest headlines last Saturday was Notre Dame's Dick Lynch — the boy who beat Oklahoma. But after consideration of an unusual number of fine individual feats, Florida's Bernie Parrish was selected today as Back of the Week.

Parrish is a — around performing — down run that stopped Oklahoma's winning streak at 47. It drew the strongest recommendations from sports writers and broadcasters participating in the Associated Press poll. Parrish did everything impossible to give Florida a 14-7 victory over a strong Vanderbilt team.

The Florida junior right halfback scored both touchdowns on runs of 45 and 22 yards. He kicked both conversions. He made seven tackles, one of which stopped Vandy short of a tying touchdown as the half ended. He intercepted one pass and batted down Vanderbilt's final scoring effort in the end zone. Then he carried the ball out of the danger zone with a 17-yard end run that topped off a performance that netted 111 yards on 11 carries.

Pushing Parrish hard for Back of the Week honors were Don Meredith, Southern Methodist sophomore quarterback, Jack Morris, Oregon fullback, and Joe Francis,
Oregon state fullback.

Couple Will Not Waive Extradition

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A grandmother and her son have refused to waive extradition and return to Nebraska to face charges of child stealing.

Mrs. Bertha Huddleston and her son, James Bradley Henry, are charged by Nebraska authorities of taking Henry's daughter, Marilyn Sue Henry, 6, from a Lincoln children's home at gunpoint last week.

The child had been placed in the home pending the outcome of a custody suit between Mrs. Huddleston who had been awarded custody of the child, and the girl's mother, Mrs. Genlen Henry Martin.

Mrs. Huddleston and her son surrendered to police Saturday on the Nebraska warrant, and were released on $5,000 bond. Police notified Lincoln authorities yesterday of the grandmother's refusal to return. A hearing on the case was set for Dec. 16 in Little Rock municipal court.

Arkansas authorities has asked that Mrs. Martin and her husband be extradited from Nebraska to face charges they illegally took the child from Mrs. Huddleston.

In turn, if Nebraska authorities decided to start extradition proceedings, they will have to have a representative at the court hear-

Ike, Defense Chief Talk of Spending

AUGUSTA, Ga. — President Eisenhower and Secretary of Defense McElroy confer today regarding how much defense spending must be tilted to meet the threat of Russia's space weapons.

James C. Hagerly, Eisenhower's press secretary, described the session as another in a series of defense spending for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The series, which began months ago, has taken on much more significance in the light of the Soviet Union's recent missile and satellite advances.

In a speech at Oklahoma City, Wednesday night, Eisenhower said U.S. spending in those fields will have to be increased by a very considerable amount.

There have been some predictions that defense expenditures will run between one and two billion dollars in excess of outlay for this year.

McElroy has indicated the overall boost may not be that large if savings can be made in other military areas.

Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas Head Star Cast in Epic Film 'Gunfight at the O. K. Corral'

One of America's most compelling legends, the story of the unbreakable friendship between the famed U. S. Marshal of Dodge City and Tombstone, Wyatt Earp, and the gun-slinging ex-convict, Doc Holliday, has been filmed by Paramount with Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas in the lead roles.

Produced by Hollywood's foremost hit-and-star-maker, Hal Wallis, and titled "Gunfight at the O. K. Corral," after the climactic incident that put a bloody period to Tombstone's fierce struggle for law and order, the huge-scale Technicolor drama looms as one of the major Westerns of all time.

Arriving Sunday at the Stanger theater, the VistaVision film co-stars Rhonda Fleming, Academy Award-winner Jo Van Fleet and John Ireland, with Lyle Bettger, Frank Faylen and Earl Holliman heading the large supporting cast.

Set in the roaring days of 1870-82 in Texas, Kansas and Arizona, the film dramatizes the little-known story behind the partnership of the respected and feared lawman Earp and the law-scorning Holliday in their efforts to wipe out the terrorizing Clanton gang and their deadly killer Ringo.

John Sturges, an Oscar-nominee for "Bad Day at Black Rock," directed from a screenplay by the brilliant Leon Uris, of "Battle Cry" fame. The title song, by Ned Washington and Dimitri Tiomkin, Oscar-winner for his "High Noon" song, is sung by Frankie Lane as a running background to the story and is set to become one of the year's smash hit records.

Woman Sues MOP for $400,000
LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A Little Rock woman sued the Missouri Pacific Railroad for $400,000 yesterday, charging the road's negligence caused the death of her husband.

Mrs. Modene Martindale Jackson filed the suit, one of the largest damage actions ever filed in Pulaski Circuit court, through her attorney, T. J. Gentry.

Mrs. Martin asked $50,000 for President said that in these times when the nation's strength is being tested at every point, America's economy "can ill afford to waste the talent and abilities of any individual because of discrimination against him on the basis of his race, his color or his creed."

Eisenhower made the statement in noting that today has been designated Equal Opportunity Day and also is the 94th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

"Every citizen who helps to make legal and economic equality a living thing is helping America," Eisenhower said.

Slayer Shows No Sign of Remorse

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Ed Gein, 51-year-old bachelor, appeared to show no remorse a state criminologist said last night after more than five hours of questioning in connection with the slaying of a widow and the finding of 10 human skulls in his farm home.

Charles Wilson head of the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory, said he could not detect any remorse. "Just a sort of detachment."

Gein, brought to Madison for interrogation in connection with the butchering of Mrs. Bernice Worder of Plainfield, Wis., faced further questioning today.

As Gein's grisly story was being investigated, Sheriff Herbert Wanserski of Portage County said he recognized one of the skulls found on Gein's farm near Plainfield as that of a long-missing woman.

Wanserski told newsmen that he did not believe Gein's story that he had taken the assortment of skulls and grisly human remains from cemeteries.

The sheriff said: "We have found the face and head of Mary Hogan among the objects in Gein's farm home." He said Mrs. Hogan was a 54-year-old Portage County divorcee who disappeared in December 1954 from the rural tavern she operated at Baneroff, about six miles from Gein's farm.

Wanserski said he had taken part in the investigation since it started Saturday night after the discovery of Mrs. Worder's butchered body. Gein has admitted butchering the 58-year-old widow after dragging her bloody corpse from the hardware store she operated in Plainfield. He insisted, however, he did not remember actually killing Mrs. Worder.

Gein was equally emphatic in saying that he didn't know anything about Mrs. Hogan's disappearance.

Gein, a handyman and sometime baby sitter, has maintained that the skulls and other human relics found in his house had been looted from graves "while I was in a daze-like."

Gein's attorney William Belter said he had not verified reports that parts of 15 female bodies had been found in Gein's house. He said an officer at the Gein farm, whom he did not know, had told him there were some "skull" human noses found. Belter added the officer told him "they didn't seem to go with the faces."

Sheriff Wanserski told newsmen that the heads found in the farm-house had been skinned. The detached portion, he said, made up "faces of a regular size, well preserved, with hair, ears lips and nose."

The sheriff said he examined 10 such objects apart from the skulls found in the building, and that "all but two of them are faces. The others are only skulls. The ones with the faces have no eyes, only holes." He confirmed that other items fabricated of human skin were found.

Belter said that he will enter a plea of innocent by reason of insanity when Gein is arraigned in Waushara County Court Monday on a charge of armed robbery. He is being held under $10,000 bond on the charge in connection with the theft of a cash register in Mrs. Worder's store.

Gein lived along on the family farm and is without known relatives.

His mother, Augusta W. Gein, bought the 160-acre farm for $3,600 in 1914. His father died of cancer in the early 1940s. His brother died in 1944. His mother died in 1945 of a stroke.

First Day Usually the Toughest One
ST. LOUIS (AP) "Why don't you have any figures?"

"I wasn't born with them." That's what five-year-old Jerry French told an inquisitive classmate during his first day at kindergarten yesterday.

Jerry was born without hands or feet, and his life has been a daily struggle to do things he sees other youngsters do.

The spunky boy, equipped with mechanical hands and feet, has an amazing way to be just like the other kids. He can "scribble" with a pencil brush his teeth, eat without aid and ride a bike. He declined to go to a school for handicapped children.

The boy who asked Jerry why he didn't have any fingers furnished the only tense moment yesterday. The teacher, Miss Frances Pearce, said Jerry answered easily and without embarrassment. The other children seemed satisfied.

the estate and $350,000 for herself and her three children. She claimed her husband, James E. Jackson, 29, was killed when his truck was hit by a Missouri Pacific train at a Pine Bluff rail crossing on U.S. highway 65.

Also named in the suit as a defendant was G. E. Billingsley, the engineer of the train involved in the accident. The suit charged the railroad was negligent in failure to sound the train's whistle or bell upon approaching the crossing.

Sees No Proof Russia Is Far Ahead of U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, says Russia's two earth satellites "do not prove that the Russians are more advanced in military rocketry than we are."

Quarles said the Sputniks must be regarded as the "first and exciting problems, into the mysteries of outer space... significant as an indication of the state of advancement of Russian military rocketry."

But, he added in a New York speech, the satellites have "little or no other military significance," and do not show Russian superiority to the United States in that field.

But the head of the Army's ballistic missile agency at Huntsville, Ala., has indicated he thinks the nation is behind the Russians.

Maj. Gen. J. B. Medaris said in Detroit that the United States could catch the Soviets in the missile race in three to five years "if we use all the resources at our command."

Quarles and Medaris both expressed their views on another topic—whether or not the United States should make a special effort to send a rocket to the moon.

"We must not be panicked or pushed into any sudden dispersion of effort which would scatter our talents and resources in an unprofitable or wasteful manner," the deputy defense secretary said.

"We must not be talked into 'hitting the moon with a rocket,' for example, just to be first, unless by doing so we stand to gain something of real scientific or military significance."

Medaris who made a speech and also held a news conference in Detroit, said the United States will hit the moon as soon as it can.

"It is important to get as far out as possible," he said. Medaris explained his remarks did not represent official policy.

At Dodge City, Kan., House Speaker Rhyburn (D-Tex.) said that everyone acknowledges the United States is being the Russians in missile and satellite development.

"There is no reason for this," he said. "We have the qualified scientists but they have not been used properly. We have not had an organized program from the president on down."

In New York, the acting president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology—Dr. Julius A. Stratton—disclosed that a new long-range radar device now is in operation at Westford, Mass., near Boston.

Porkers Are Not Slacking Off

FAYETTEVILLE (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks are not slacking off just because their conference season is over.

Coach Jack Mitchell put the Porkers through a rugged 2-hour scrimmage yesterday and announced he expects a rugged game from Texas Tech Saturday in Little Rock.

The Porkers need to win the season's finale to match last year's 6-4 record. Arkansas has lost its last three outings.

Mitchell said yesterday that fullback Gerald Nesbitt is still a doubtful starter Saturday. Nesbitt

Prescott News

Prescott Post Office To Mark 84th Anniversary Sunday, Nov. 24 marks the eighty-fourth year of the establishment of Prescott as a post office. The city and post office received their name from an eminent historian, William Hickling Prescott, who was a friend of the promoters of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad when the town site was selected.

The post office was first located in a store building facing the railroad at the present site of the First State Bank building. Robert Burns was appointed the first postmaster. The office was a fourth class when established, advanced to a third class in the 1890's and then to a second class in 1912. Six rural routes were established April 1, 1903 and two city routes in 1921.

Abner E. McGuire, one of the original rural carriers was appointed when the service was established. He is the oldest living employee in point of service.

from her eyes, said today her prayers were answered when her soldier husband escaped a prison term for the killing of a Japanese woman scrap collector.

"In my heart I am happy that the trial is over but at the same time I am sad for the Sakai family," the Japanese wife of Specialist 3.C. William S. Girard said. Girard, wearing a fatigues uniform, stood beside his diminutive bride as the two talked with newsmen on the steps of the headquarters building at Camp Drew.

It was Candys first public statement since a Japanese court yesterday gave Girard a three-year suspended prison sentence for shooting Mrs. Naka Sakai on a U. S. firing range last Jan. 30. Candy smiled and put her hand shyly across her face when asked about family plans.

"All I can say is that I hope there is no more trouble," she replied and began weeping.

Girard kissed his wife and explained, "She's crying because she's nervous. He murmured to Candy, 'Don't worry, honey.'"

Girard said they hadn't decided where they would live in America. Candy began crying again when newsmen asked her what she was looking forward to most in the United States.

The brief interview broke up after a newsmen asked Candy what she now thinks of Kayoko Sakai 18-year-old daughter of the dead woman, who has insisted that Girard should have been sent to prison.

Candy began to weep bitterly and wailed, "All I can say is that I am very sorry."

It is estimated about three million Mexicans do not speak Spanish; only their tribal language.

HAND PICKED for MURDER By Robert Martin

Copyright 1957 by Robert Martin

THE STORY: Jim Bennett's assignment by his detective agency is to contact Hugo Howell, who wants to break up a romance of his son with a "predatory woman." Jim already has had a fight with Hugo, who hasn't learned that Jim is a detective. Now Jim meets the son, Wayne.

CHAPTER IV

Wayne Howell looked at his quickly and his mouth quivered a little. Then he said in a low, intense voice, "A detective? Did Father hire you too?"

"Nobody has hired me," I broke in gently. "Forget it." I could have spanked Honey Campbell for tipping me to Howell's son. But the damage was done, and I added, "Are you staying with your father, Wayne?"

He ignored my question and spoke in a low voice. "It won't do you any good. He's hired other detectives and they failed. I'm warning you now to leave us alone."

"I don't understand," I said innocently. "Us?"

"Sandra and me."

I said, "I asked you a question, Wayne. Are you staying with your father?"

He stared at me for a moment. Then he took a deep breath and said in a low, controlled voice, "No, I'm not staying with Father."

asked gravely. "You're all against me." Wayne clenched a fist. "Everybody is against me."

Behind Chief Campbell I saw that his daughter has stopped her pacing and was gazing at Wayne Howell with something like pity in her eyes. And maybe something else?

Wayne hurried to the door. "Tell my father I'll see him in the morning — when he's sober." He went out and the door slammed behind him.

Chief Campbell gazed at the door and rubbed his chin thoughtfully. "Mr. Howell has a real problem there," he said. "Maybe he has reason to get drunk."

Honey Campbell jerked her head away from the door and said defensively, "I think Wayne is nice. You just don't understand him."

The chief gazed at her silently, still rubbing his chin. Then he said in a mild voice, "I wasn't aware that you knew him, child."

She avoided her father's steady, curious gaze. "I — I met him in June when he first came to the beach. We went swimming together and — had fun, until she came. I knew she was coming, because Wayne had told me. But —"

Her voice trailed off and she turned away.

"Well," I said briskly, "I'll run along."

After a dinner of broiled pickered and a baked potato I signed for a room, had a boy get my bag from the car and take it up, and then left the hotel and strolled down to the harbor and out to a long cement pier. There was construction of some sort going

Mail Catalogs Are Termed History Books

By BARBARA TIRITILLI

CHICAGO (UP) — It's time we exposed mail order catalogs for what they really are: History books.

Thumb through those bulky catalogs of years gone by and you'll absorb a vivid, fast and accurate picture of our nation's changing living patterns and standards. The mail order books graphically depict year-to-year changes in the necessities, comforts and prices that have taken place in the last half century.

Let's look at the catalogs issued 50 years ago, in 1907, by the nation's two leading mail order houses, Sears Roebuck and Co. and Montgomery Ward.

The Montgomery Ward catalog of that year included a message of reassurance for horses and people who relied on them. Never fear, said the catalog. Those new-fangled horseshoe carriages will never replace old dobbin.

Next, the catalog went on to fill more than 20 pages with advertisements for buggies, cutters and sleighs. Another 40 pages displayed a wide selection of saddles, harnesses and other horse-oriented accessories. Ten more pages showed off the latest in blacksmith equipment, items you won't find in today's catalog.

Except for an automobile tire here and there, the 1907 catalog gave no indication that the automobile was here to stay.

When it came to inside-the-house merchandise, the 1907 catalog offered a slick "ball bearing" washing machine that would wash "anything washable." It sold for $50.50.

A young mother could buy a "swell roll design" sleeper go-cart for $9.35.

The new dimension in sound, still two generations removed from rock 'n' roll, came out of a "solid oak cabinet complete with gold horn and large bell." This talking machine was priced at $9.75.

News Briefs

LONDON (UP) — Soviet scientists claimed today to have discovered an active volcano in the North Pole area. Moscow Radio reported. The broadcast said the claim was made in Leningrad by Prof. Yakov Gakkel who said minerals of volcanic extraction had been discovered in samples of soil collected from the underwater Lomonosov Mountain Range.

VIENNA (UP) — Austria's famous "Deutschmeister" brass band will leave next January for a four-month tour of the United States, it was disclosed today. The band will appear with other Austrian ensembles on television and in 9 cities in 31 states under the title "Vienna on Parade."

MIAMI BEACH (UP) — Multi-millionaire sugar heir Adolph Spreckels II was arrested Tuesday on charges of being drunk and disorderly in a swank restaurant. Spreckels, who weighs 200 pounds and is heavily intoxicated, was released on $25 bond after spending five hours in the city jail. He was ordered to appear in municipal court today.

LONDON (UP) — Budapest Radio said today that the first Russian jet TU-104 airliner has arrived in the Hungarian capital from Moscow. The broadcast said the plane landed Tuesday to inaugurate a regular weekly schedule between the two Communist cities.

SHREVEPORT, La. (UP) — Lt. Col. John C. Lewis, 36, veteran Air Force pilot who set a coast-to-coast speed record for a medium bomber in 1955 and his wife, the former Sadie Kappel, were killed today when their car collided with a train at Bossier City, La. Lewis was from Frostburg, Md.

on at the shore end of the pier and I packed a pile of sand and stacks of bricks.

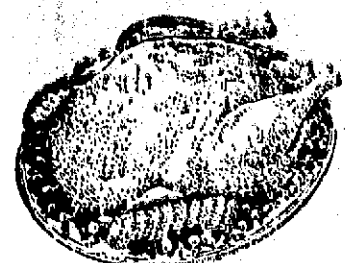

I reached the end of the pier and lit a cigarette.

I finished the cigarette, snapped it into the dark water, and was about to return to the hotel when I heard a slight sound behind me. I started to turn, but I was far too slow. Something solid and heavy smacked the back of my head. I sagged sideways, hanging on to the post to keep from falling into the water. I felt pain and a horrifying dizziness, and brilliant rainbow lights flashed behind my eyes. I clung desperately to the post, teetering on the edge of the pier, leaning out over the water. My arms were suddenly very tired, unable to hold my weight. I felt hands shoving at me violently. My fingers slipped away from the post and I pitched outward, and hit the water with the full length of my body.

My face stung with the impact and then I was under the water and the world seemed far away and gone forever. I can swim, after a fashion, but my head was bursting with pain and my arms and legs were too heavy to move. The cold water gurgled against my ears.

And suddenly I felt peaceful and happy, a strange sensation, and I didn't care any more. The soft dark water was friendly now; it seemed to whisper words of comfort and love and reassurance. I closed my eyes and let the water embrace me.

Production of Helium Will Be Expanded

By W. JOYNE MACFARLAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is planning a major expansion of its helium production capacity to meet expanding needs in the missiles and other defense programs, it was learned today.

Right-level planning also was reported under way to develop a comprehensive long-range program aimed at future extraction of all possible helium from natural gas before it is used for fuel, with consequent waste forever of the helium content.

These developments were reported by Interior Department officials, who said that recently printed designs of the Russian dog-eared Sputnik showed that it contained a helium carrier. They said this may be an indication the Soviet Union is now producing helium in some quantity.

The Bureau of Mines operates this government's four helium plants at Exell and Amarillo, Tex., Shippack, N. M., and Otis Kan.

More Smoking Predicted in America

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department said today it is likely that Americans will consume about 15 per cent more cigarettes in 1965 than this year.

But the use of tobacco in making cigarettes may not increase more than 5 per cent, the agency said in an outlook report.

The forecast of the 15 per cent increase in use of cigarettes was based upon the assumption that the controversial health aspect of cigarette smoking will have no prolonged adverse effects in consumption.

It also assumes that the number of male smokers will increase about 10 per cent and female smokers at least 35 per cent.

The reason the usage of tobacco is not expected to increase as much as cigarette smoking is that processors are expected to use more and more of the leaf and stem that in the past was discarded.

Consumption of smoking tobacco in pipes and in roll-your-own cigarettes, which has been declining steadily since 1950, is expected by the department to drop another 40 per cent by 1965.

Likewise, a further reduction of 15 per cent in consumption of chewing tobacco was forecast by the future date.

Baptist Plan Expansion at Ouachita

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A $750,000 expansion program for Ouachita Baptist college was expected to be one of the major topics of the Arkansas State Baptist Convention, which opened a 3-day meeting today.

The executive board agreed yesterday to ask the Convention to try and raise $750,000 for the Arkadelphia school, which now has a record enrollment of 919.

The proposed fund campaign would be completed within a 3-year period.

It was announced that a Ouachita alumnus now living in Cleveland had agreed to donate $50,000 toward construction of a men's dormitory if the college raised the remaining $300,000 necessary for construction.

Ouachita President Ralph A. Phelps told the executive board the college also needs a women's dormitory that would cost $200,000 and library improvements for $100,000.

The board also voted to ask the Convention's permission for the college to borrow $200,000 for a dining hall.

A loan of $175,000 was authorized last year, but has proved too small for the structure's estimated cost.

About 2,000 messengers delegates were expected for the meetings here which end Thursday.

Dr. Ray Gray of Helena, president of the state Convention, presided.

The executive board yesterday received the official acceptance of Dr. S. A. Whitlow, an Arkadelphia pastor, as executive secretary of the board.

Dr. B. L. Bridges of Little Rock has held the post for 25 years before his recent resignation.

TELEPHONE TALK

By Vance Smiley, Wire Chief, Hope, Ark.

Looking Ahead

At the present time there are sixteen Western Electric employees installing new equipment in our office that will cost $60,000.00. This equipment will be used primarily to permit Hope to be the Toll Center or Master Office for several telephone exchanges that will be converted to dial soon. What will this mean to our town and community? Just this: anytime an exchange handles the toll and information calls for other towns it means an increase of telephone personnel and a potential of other business customers for our town.

As of today, we are the Toll Center for Ashdown and Horatio and will probably add DeQueen and Foreman by the end of this year. Then too, we are Looking Ahead to the time there will be others.

A Thought for Thanksgiving

Remember that old Thanksgiving song, "Over the river and through the woods, to Grandmother's house we go?"

A short ride was all it took to get to Grandmother's in those days. Today, it seems as if everyone lives so far away — even when we travel by car.

This Thanksgiving, why not go "over the river and through the woods" the modern way — by telephone.

Long Distance is a wonderful, personal way to visit during the holidays. Low station-to-station rates make Long Distance economical, too. And remember, call by number — it's twice as fast.

Color for Christmas

Christmas may be a month or so away, but the way time flies it's not too early to begin making out our gift list.

To match this colorful season of the year, telephones in color are ideal gifts — particularly for relatives or close friends who have only one telephone in their home.

A handy additional telephone in color will be a gift they'll remember all year long. Why not call our business office today to learn how easy it is to give a telephone in color.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
